

SENIOR AUDIT/TAX ACCOUNTANT

JHS CPAs, LLP is a well-established, rapidly-growing CPA firm with offices in Danville and Anaheim, California. We are a team of courteous professionals dedicated to providing quality accounting and auditing services, tax preparation services, tax advice and planning, and management advisory services.

JHS is seeking a Senior Audit/Tax Accountant with Public Accounting experience for our office in Danville, California. This candidate will be provided a wide range of work assignments in all aspects of public accounting, including tax preparation, financial statement audits, review and compilations, and consulting. Candidate should be a results-oriented problem solver who can work in a fast-paced multi-tasking environment and who embraces change and enjoys challenges.

Key Responsibilities and Preferred Requirements:

- Accurate and timely completion of assigned work
- Adherence and compliance with firm processes
- Continuous learning and personal development
- Follow-up of assigned work with managers
- Excellent written and verbal communication
- Directs and reviews work of staff accountants
- Client satisfaction
- Construction accounting experience a plus
- Experience with CCH ProSystem Fx/Engagement a plus
- Strong knowledge of QuickBooks and Excel

Educational and Professional Qualifications:

- A minimum of 3 – 5 years of work experience in the public accounting industry
- A college degree in accounting with desire to obtain a CPA license

Benefits:

- Competitive salary
- PTO – 4 weeks for the first 10 years of employment
- 401(k) profit sharing plan
- Approximately 15 paid holidays/year
- Medical, dental, vision & chiropractic/acupuncture insurance
- Flexible benefits plan
- Life insurance
- Long-term disability insurance
- Technology reimbursement
- Education and training and time off to take CPA exam